D 9311

FORM No. G. (SM-1)39

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE

S.2 Special Branch

REPORT

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE
S. B. REGISTRY
No. S. B. D.
Date July 4 1939.

Subject (in full) Reported missing of one Jang, alleged Government official from Chungking.

Made by and Forwarded by Supt. Tan Shao Liang

Enquiries amongst ex-government officials have failed to confirm the report that an important official from Chungking bearing the name of Jang(張) has been miss[illegible] from the Concession or Settlement.

Tan Shao Liang
Superintendent.

D. C. (Special Branch)

FILE

Eastern Times :- 28.6.39

CHUNGKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL MISSING IN SHANGHAI

According to information from quarters concerned, a man named Jang (張), who is an important official of the Chungking Government responsible for certain activities in Shanghai, has been missing since June 19 when he went out to keep an appointment with a friend. His relatives and friends are anxious to know his whereabouts.

SHANGHAI 29 JUNE 1939 COMMISSIONER G.M.D.

G. SCM-1-38

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

S.B. Special Branch Station,

REPORT

Date July 4. 1939.

Subject. Objectionable article published in the "Eastern Times" on June 28, 1939.

Made by and Forwarded by D. S. Lockwood.

With reference to the article entitled "Chungking Government Official Missing in Shanghai" published in the "Eastern Times" on June 28, 1939, Mr Chen Ta-van (陳大文), Assistant Editor of the paper, was interviewed at Police Headquarters on July 3, 1939 when he was asked the source of this information. Mr. Chen stated that the article was contributed by an unknown person and to substantiate his statement, he produced the attached draft. Mr. Chen was warned that articles of this type are undesirable and objectionable from a Police viewpoint.

It was suggested to Mr. Chen that it would be in his interest to refer any articles on a doubtful or objectionable subject to the police for an opinion before he published it.

D. S. Lockwood.
D. S.

D. C. (Special Branch).

FILE

June 28, 1939. Morning Translation

Eastern Times :-

CHUNGKING GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL MISSING IN SHANGHAI

According to information from quarters concerned, a man named Jang (張), who is an important official of the Chungking Government responsible for certain activities in Shanghai, has been missing since June 19 when he went out to keep an appointment with a friend. His relatives and friends are anxious to know his whereabouts.